the King's School

Preparing Tomorrow's Leaders Today!

Thank you for your interest in The King's School. Attached is the application for the next school year. Please complete the forms and submit to the school office with the requested documentation.

- Requests for tuition assistance will be considered for families with children in grades kindergarten through 12th grade.
- Incomplete applications cannot be considered. The following is required:
 - Completed Financial Assistance Application and Financial Condition Worksheet (attach separate sheet if needed)
 - Complete copy of latest tax return, (including all supporting schedules)
 - Current pay stubs

Receipt of financial assistance in the past is not a guarantee of assistance in any future year.

In a case where the applicant is divorced, the assets/income of both parents will be considered in the Committee's review if the parents have joint custody. If someone else is financially responsible for the child, that person should submit the aid form and explain his/her relationship to the student. Receipt of financial assistance in the past is not a guarantee of assistance in any future year.
